GIST TRACT SELECTED AS SITE FOR THE NEW POLYTECHNIC HIGH SCHOOL

THREE OF COMMITTEE AND THREE OF SCHOOL BOARD IN FAVOR OF SOUTHWEST

MRS. NORMAN AND MRS. SMART VOTE AGAINST IT AND DECLARE THEY NEVER AGREED TO LET ADVISORY COMMITTEE VOTE WITH BOARD ON SELECTION.

The new polytechnic high school will be built on the Gist tract in the southwest part of the city. This was the decision reached at the meeting last night. Four of the advisory committee reported favorably to the Gist tract and one to the Stafford tract. The school board stood three for the Gist tract, one "against the Gist tract," and one for the Stafford tract.

The site lies at the southwest corner of what will be Walnut and Ross streets when those streets are extended. Mrs. F. M. Gist yesterday agreed to give a narrow strip of land from First to Walnut along Ross. Her price for fifteen acres was $25,000. A bonus of $6150 was raised for the tract, reducing the amount the school board must pay to $18,850. Among the donors to the bonus fund were: Lottie Palmer, $2500; Emma P. Mosbaugh, $1500; Mrs. F. M. Gist, $500; John Cubbon, trustee, $500; Heninger Bros., $500; C. A. Fowler, $100; E. O. Shields, $50; J. D. Parsons, $50; F. E. Cloyes, $100; Frank Heil, $50; N. Beisel, $50; H. W. Hinze, $50; C. M. Conn, $100.

The decision in favor of the Gist property was not reached without considerable display of the earnestness with which those present regarded the matter. It early developed that the advisory board favored the Gist property. From the very start W. L. Duggan, president of the board, took the lead for the Gist tract and presented its argument, along with the tin can of earth taken from the tract.

Three directors of the school board, J. M. Cain, Mrs. E. B. Norman and Mrs. W. M. Smart, expressed themselves in favor of submitting the matter to a vote of the people, and Mrs. Norman moved to submit it to the people. Mrs. Smart seconded, and a lengthy argument ensued. When it came to a vote Cain did not vote for submission, and the motion was lost.

The Ohio Supreme Court voiced by the advisory committee voted on that question which lost 2 to 5.

The meeting was an interesting one, at times quite animated and several times rather personal.

Late in Starting
The school board met about 7 o'clock, but it was after 8 o'clock before it retired from a secret session in regard to some affairs of the schools. By that time some thirty or thirty-five citizens had gathered in the hall of the high school building.

President Duggan came out and asked if there was anyone who had anything to say to the school board. W. L. Grubb said he had something to say, and when Grubb went into the meeting room, the assemblage followed him, and the doings were on.

These Present
The five school directors, W. L. Duggan, Mrs. W. M. Smart, Mrs. E. B. Norman, H. G. Dean and J. M. Cain, and three advisory committee-men, J. N. Anderson, W. A. Zimmerman and W. B. Tedford, were present. O. M. Robbins and H. T. Ruthford of the advisory committee were absent.

Grubb: "We are unable to submit a definite offer tonight for the northeast corner of North Main street and Santa Clara avenue, as we have not been able to get in touch with Mr. Joy. If given time, however, I assure you that you can have ten acres of the Joy property at $1500 an acre, and five acres of the Palmer property at $1400 an acre, a total of $22,000."

W. L. Dearing stated that if more land is wanted than he offered in his site, Passar's land on the west could be had at $1500 an acre.

The secretary, Mrs. Smart, read all offers received since the last meeting. They were: 15.19 acres on East Chestnut, O. S. Lewis, owner, for $21,000; Townsend tract reduced from $1500 an acre to $1400, with a statement from J. W. Sackman that if the Townsend tract should be selected he would move the brickyard away and fill the pit; the offer of John Jacobs, John Bruns and D. W. Weston of land at the southwest corner of Broadway and Santa Clara, $36,000; G. R. Smith, on Wright between First and Fourth, $25,000; C. Hofer, ten acres, $11,000. H. M. Seymour made a talk in favor of a site at the corner of C and Seventeenth by uniting the Yoch and Hofer offers.

Zimmerman Reports
Zimmerman stated that options had been secured from Mrs. Cole, Wellesman, Rankin and Smith for their property in the Cole tract. The tract would cost $42,350, less what ever could be gotten for the Cole and Rankin houses. The tract, how-

NEW YORK KEEN FOR SIGHT OF ROYALTY

Progress Duke of Connaught's Party Barred By Crowd of Cheering Thousands

FUNERAL PROCESSION HALTED BY EAGER MOB

Photographers Mounted Hearses to Snap Duke—Police Beat Back Crowd

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Princess Patricia and the Whitelaw Reids visited the Stock Exchange and financial district today. Their progress was barred by cheering thousands, who almost mobbed the police reserves called out to clear the streets.

The party left the Reid mansion in automobiles. The machines bearing the party were separated from their bodyguard of machines and became the center of a human curiosity maelstrom. Downtown traffic was blocked. The party finally gained the Stock Exchange, the police using their clubs. The party was conducted to the Governor's room and introduced to the members of the exchange. They watched the brokers trading in the pit for a quarter of an hour, apparently enjoying the spectacle.

Leaving the exchange under police escort, the crowd again rushed to the scene, demoralizing a passing funeral. The hearse horses reared, and an accident was feared. Gaining the autos, the police cleared the path. The hearse driver seeing an opportunity to evade the mob drove beside the Duke's auto. Other autos of the party scattered among the mourners' carriages. Newspaper photographers swarmed on the top of the hearse endeavoring to snap the Duke of Connaught. At the first street intersection, the royal autos left the funeral procession, to drive to the home of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt for luncheon.

AMERICAN COURTS AND JUSTICE ARE SCATHED

Publicist Declares Courts Are The Last Bulwarks of Trusts—Convention May Defy Ohio Supreme Court

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A scathing denunciation of American justice and the American courts, which he declares are the last bulwarks of the trusts, was voiced by C. P. Connolly, a lawyer and publicist, in an article appearing in Everybody's Magazine tomorrow. He says partly:

"I am prepared to prove that the business interests have retreated into the courts preparatory to making a last stand behind the judiciary. My investigation extends to almost every state, and into both Federal and state courts. I have unearthed astounding tales of judicial perversion and malpractice and will prove that when the highest courts of many states have rendered important decisions the political leaders of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Missouri, California and Colorado, have entered the courts and thereupon the judges, like puppets at the end of a string, have turned undignified somersaults."

Connolly then alleges instances of attempted bribery. He also alleges that a judge was intoxicated when he gave a decision in an important case where Connolly was counsel. He further cites his own law practice in Montana, saying:

"The law began in ideals and ended in deals."

Referring to certain decisions in Montana, he said: "Judges read decisions that had been bought in the market place. I know of a Butte judge who was trailed nights like a beast, cornered in a hotel room and beset by a bribe squad of a corporation which tried to buy him for a quarter of a million." Connolly concludes by saying:

"These are the evil decisions that flow from commonwealth to commonwealth, corrupting the entire legal system of the nation."

DEFIANCE OF OHIO SUPREME COURT IS VOICED BY BIGELOW

COLUMBUS, Jan. 24.—A defiance of the Ohio Supreme Court was voiced by President Bigelow of the State Constitutional Convention before the delegates. His remarks were prompted by a reference to the recent decision indicating that the Supreme Court will invalidate the initiative and referendum on the grounds that it conflicts with the ordinance of 1877, creating the Northwest Territory of which Ohio was a part. Bigelow said:

"If the court's decision goes unrepudiated by the people this convention will be reduced to the position of an ordinary legislature. Its work, although ratified by the people, may be vetoed by the court."

MAGNOLIA SCHOOL PRINCIPAL IN JAIL ON FELONY CHARGE

C. R. Peabody, principal of the school at Magnolia, three miles west of Anaheim, was placed in the county jail last night on a charge of wrongfully Loren Levereau, the 15-year-old daughter of D. Levereau, a rancher of the Magnolia district. On account of the age of the girl, the wrong with which Peabody is charged constitutes a felony. The girl was a pupil in Peabody's schoolroom, and the crime with which Peabody is charged is alleged to have occurred last May.

Peabody has a wife and two children. He taught school one year at El Toro and for the last three years he has been at the Magnolia school. He seems to have been well thought of in the district.

Peabody was arrested at his home yesterday evening by Deputy Sheriffs Squires and Jernigan, and was taken immediately to the county jail, where he now is. Peabody made a vain effort to get bail. This morning he was taken before Justice Cox and his preliminary examination was set for Feb. 10. His bail is $3000.

Peabody is about 30 years of age. He stated this afternoon that he was not guilty, would plead not guilty and would fight the case. Clyde Bishop is to defend him.

The prosecution expects to put on evidence to show admissions of Peabody to two different physicians to whom he went in regard to the matter.

The contest is to be a merry tug-of-war among the single and married women for popular honors and a $1450.00 five-passenger E-M-F-30 automobile, fully equipped with top and covers, windshield, speedometer, pre-sto-lite tank, self-starter, extra tire, extra tube, tire carrier, tire cover, robe rail, foot rail, lamps, and every modern requirement.

This magnificent car, the most expensive gift ever offered by a newspaper in Orange County, was purchased from the local agents, Lutz & Company. It will be on exhibition tomorrow morning in front of the Register office, and the public is invited to inspect this valuable prize.

Who May Enter the Contest
Any woman (married or single) who is a resident of Orange County, is eligible to compete in this contest, provided a nomination blank has been received, properly filled in, bearing the name of the person nominated. A nomination blank for this purpose is printed at the bottom of a full page advertisement appearing in this issue.

Candidates may be nominated by their friends or relatives, or they may nominate themselves. A person does not have to be a subscriber of the Register to enter the contest; all that is necessary to enter is to be formally nominated by yourself or your friends, by means of the nomination blank just mentioned.

50000 Votes if You Enter Now Having made up your mind to enter the contest, and at the same time having resolved to win, you should AT ONCE cut out the nomination blank and send it to this office, properly filled out. If you do this immediately or before Saturday, Feb. 3rd, 1912, it will count 5000 votes to your credit. Then you will have been properly entered as a contestant, and duly entitled to compete for popular honors and the beautiful $1450.00 E-M-F-30 Touring Car.

Don't Overlook a Single Vote
Be zealous for votes at the outset of your campaign. Don't delay entering your name, and you will have a lead over others to start with. The nomination blank is good for 5000 votes if you enter right away, but it will be reduced 2500 votes after Saturday, Feb. 3rd.

How to Proceed in the Contest
An early start is half the battle. Having entered your name on the list notify all your friends and acquaintances that you have joined the Register's Automobile Contest, and ask them to save their Coupons for you. If you don't someone else will. Each coupon counts for five votes, and a coupon will be published in each issue of the paper from now until the end of the contest, Saturday night, March 16th, 1912.

Votes on Subscriptions
By securing subscriptions to the Daily Register more votes can be procured than by the mere accumulation of coupons.

Votes can be secured on paid-in-advance subscriptions, (old or new), to the Daily Register, according to the vote schedule printed in the full page advertisement in this issue. To those already taking the Daily Register and who may be in arrears will be allowed votes according to this schedule, provided they pay in advance for a period of not less than three months in addition to their arrearages to the Daily Register.

If you will call at the office of the Register the Contest Editor will tell you all about this in a more thorough manner than can be printed, and will furnish you with the necessary blanks to facilitate the work.

If not convenient to call, phone this office, and a representative of this paper will drop in and see you.

A Fair Deal to All
Inasmuch as this contest has been thrown open to any single or married woman residing in Orange County—to those residing in the remotest sections of the county as well as those living in Santa Ana,—there can be no question as to its wide scope and all-inclusiveness.

By informing the Contest Editor through the nomination blank of your earnest intentions to participate in this campaign, he will send a representative of the Contest Department to call on you, should you live outside of Santa Ana.

About the Paper

CRISIS NEAR IN DOUBLE PROBES

Status of Events in Los Angeles Dynamiting Inquiry Indicates Climax

FEDERAL AND COUNTY PROBES IN CONFERENCE

M'Nanigal to Return and Oscar Lawler Already on Ground Excites Expectation

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—The arrival of Oscar Lawler, special prosecutor for the attorney general, is significant in its bearings to the dynamiting probe, according to Federal District Attorney McCormick.

CRISIS NEAR AT HAND IN DYNAMITING PROBE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—A crisis in the investigation of the affairs growing out of the trial of the McNamaras is approaching, according to intimations of various officials connected with the probe. Here are some of the reasons that have led those familiar with the status of the probes to come to this conclusion:

For a week the work of the county grand jury apparently has been concluded. It is believed certain that the officials in charge are ready with a report, and are awaiting the return of District Attorney Fredericks.

Mr. Fredericks is expected to arrive today or tomorrow.

The federal investigators gave it to be understood that the government would go no further with the local probe. This was done after it had been announced that the federal inquiry would be resumed yesterday.

The announcement that the government was through was made following a conference between federal and county probers.

Almost hourly conferences are being held in the office of the district attorney, which many witnesses have visited after their testimony before the grand jury.

McManigal is to be returned to Los Angeles. He already has testified here. Many take this to mean that he is to be used as a witness in a case that may follow grand jury indictments.

While these reasons are pointed out by many as superficial, others believe that they are significant, and that the week will see the climax of the investigations.

REBELS POUR INTO NANKING

SHANGHAI, Jan. 24.—Rebel reinforcements are pouring into Nanking in preparation for a renewal of hostilities. The relations of President Sun and Wu Ting Fang are still strained. Wu believes foreign intervention is coming. He reiterates his protestations that he will not accept the responsibility of any action leading to intervention.

$1,000,000 NEEDED FOR FAMISHING CHINESE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Officials of the American National Red Cross are hopeful that contributions will be increased for the relief of the famine stricken Chinese in the Yangtze valley. Thus far responses to the appeals sent out several weeks ago have been disappointing to the administrative officers of the Red Cross at Washington. More than $1,000,000 will be needed, it is estimated.

DR. SUN TO HOLD JOB UNTIL YUAN SHOWS COLORS

SHANGHAI, Jan. 24.—President Sun Yat Sen maintains his position as against the leaders here.

In a long telegram sent from Nanking yesterday to Wu Ting Fang, the minister of justice, President Sun says he has serious doubts of Yuan Shi Kai's motives. He will retain the presidency until the powers recognize the republic unless Yuan severs his connection with the Manchus and publicly avows his adherence to the republic. Only then would Sun be willing to retire in favor of Yuan.

A fresh consignment of troops proceeded to Nanking today. These include a corps of trained bomb-throwers whose uniform is distinguished by characters denoting special proficiency as dynamiters.

After several conferences yesterday between citizens of the Ocean View School district and the board of supervisors an agreement was reached that seemed to be satisfactory to all concerned. This agreement proved acceptable all round.

THIS LETTER

Mr. Seth Marshall,

Arrowhead Hot Springs, Cal.

Dear Sir:—It is with the greatest pleasure that I volunteer this testimonial to the benefits I have derived from the mineral baths and other treatments at your deservedly popular resort. Five weeks ago, a sufferer from sciatic rheumatism in severe form, and so weak that I required assistance in entering the hotel, I commenced the hot mud packs and hot water baths. At that time I was bent practically double, and each step I took was exquisite torture. The careful attention of your excellent physician, the curative properties of the mud and water, have made a new man of me. I have gained almost twenty pounds in the five weeks. I can walk erect without pain, and have been able to make several long trips over the beautiful trails which surround the hotel.

Aside from the benefit to my health, I can say that I have never spent a more delightful vacation. Everyone in any way connected with the hotel has done everything possible to make my stay pleasant. The cuisine is all the most exacting could desire, the accommodations of the best, the prices entirely within reason, and the company most congenial.

I shall certainly hope to return to Arrowhead for other vacations, and would almost welcome illness as an excuse for a stay.

Believe me, sincerely yours,
WILL C. ULLRICH.

WHAT ADVERTISING STANDS FOR

Advertising is a guarantee of good faith. It is evidence of efficiency and success.

The advertising of local stores in such a town as ours is one of the cleanest phases of modern business. Retail trade attracts a substantial class of men who prefer to tell the truth for its own sake, and would not cheat their neighbors if they could.

Of course motives of self interest also warn them to take pains to make advertising accurate, for misstatements produce disgruntled customers who can make a lot of trouble for a store which depends for success on its own townspeople.

If men of less responsible character sometimes go into retail trade, they are too shrewd to make misstatements in the cold publicity of advertising type. Our experience is that complaints of misrepresentation are almost never heard.

The public thus learns from experience that local store advertising is trustworthy. As it deals with such subject of surpassing interest as cost of living and the fashions of the day, every line of it is read with the most discriminating attention.

People like to read and think about shopping before visiting a store. A great many purchases are practically made from the newspaper before the buyer leaves home.

Furthermore, liberal advertising tells the public that a merchant is making good. Lack of it is interpreted as lack of confidence in one's business.

The firm that does not advertise is classed with the firm that seeks an obscure location in some remote side street, as too small to serve the public efficiently.

When a firm advertises freely, it gives the idea that it has a large trade to pay the expenses of the publicity. A big breezy impression of achievement is conveyed.

Nothing succeeds like success. Human nature is such, that to succeed, one must often give the impression that he has already succeeded. The public is slow to deal with propositions that do not suggest successful efficiency.

The man who has faith enough to discount the future a little, to put his earnings into his business, and by liberal advertising give the impression of having a big trade already, is sure to get it if only his goods are right.

GIST TRACT SELECTED AS SITE FOR POLYTECHNIC

can full of earth and said it was from the Gist tract.

Mrs. Norman: "Is Mr. Kellogg a soil specialist?"
Duggan: "He is a civil engineer."

Mrs. Norman: "That does not mean that he knows anything more about soils than some of these farmers."

Duggan: "The complaints they have been slinging at us is that the tract is a mudhole, and so I got this opinion of Mr. Kellogg."

Zimmerman: "Will Mrs. Gist give that strip between Walnut and First streets, east of her house, thus giving the tract a connection with First street?"

Heninger replied that she would. Rev. Van Cleave stated that there would be a donation of $2000 on the Adams & Mateer tract.

J. T. Raitt said that the Gist tract is not water stocked, while the Townsend tract has $1170 worth of water stock. Under the new offer the tract could be had for $21,000, including the $1170 water stock.

Anderson's Opinion
J. N. Anderson read a lengthy opinion announcing his decision in favor of the Gist tract. He said that the school board had eliminated all but the Townsend, Stafford, Gist and Cole tracts. He thought the school should be located so that children could go home at the noon hour. He thought it an error that the school should be on a much traveled street. He said an assertion that the soil of the Townsend or Stafford tracts is better than the Gist soil is an error. Owing to passing of wars on the electric line, the Stafford tract suffered in his opinion. He thought the city would fix up the water works grounds with plants and trees, and in time clean away the city stables. He came to the conclusion that the water level is all right, and the tract the best offered.

Duggan: "Thank you very much for your opinion."

W. A. Zimmerman, also of the advisory committee, said he favored the Cole tract, but found it unavailable. There had been many objections to all sites offered, but he found less to the Gist tract than any, and with the reduced price by reason of the bonus it ought to be selected. The Stafford tract is beautiful but the schools would be paying a fancy price for a beautiful orchard that would largely have to be cut out.

W. B. Tedford: "I have not been in favor of the Gist tract. I thought the school should go to higher ground, but Mr. Kellogg's opinion makes a difference in my view. The land that I remember years ago was marshy, must be different now. With the reduced price, and all other things considered, I think the Gist tract is as favorable as anything we have."

Duggan read a written statement from O. M. Robbins favoring the Gist tract and from H. T. Rutherford favoring the Stafford tract.

Mrs. Norman: "Why not have an expert examine this soil?"

Duggan: "There is no question but what it is all right."

G. J. Mosbaugh: "I will state that that land has raised 100 bushels of corn to the acre."

Grubb: "I see Mr. Anderson states that the water works are to be beautified and the barns removed. As a City Trustee I will say that that matter has never been discussed by the board that I know of. Also you will find that the stables of Mr. Clapp and Mr. Johnson need moving."

Mosbaugh: "If you want more ground to the south of the Gist tract, you can have five or ten acres at $1100 per acre."

Russell Scott: "I can guarantee you a bonus of $5000 on the Stafford tract, and I know we can get more if we go after it and gave a little time."

Wants Decision
Anderson: "I don't think you ought to put this matter off. The quicker we decide, the better."

Zimmerman: "It might be a mistake to name the site tonight, for should there be a flaw in the bonds and another election necessary we might find it harder to get the bonds passed if the site had been located. There has been some talk that this is a put up job. Nobody has acted otherwise than in good faith, and no one has gone around looking for some thing to be handed him from behind."

Dean: "I move we proceed with the selection of the site." No second.

Mrs. Norman: "I move we put the decision off until after the bonds are sold." Mrs. Smart seconded the motion, and it was lost.

Mrs. Norman: "Has the advisory committee got a right to vote on such matters as that?"

Duggan: "We have declared that we were in favor of having the advisory committee vote with us in this matter."

Mrs. Smart: "Have we so declared?"

Duggan: "Yes."

Mrs. Smart: "I didn't."

Duggan: "Why, we told them at the first that they would."

Mrs. Smart: "I for one did not, and there's nothing on the minutes."

Mrs. Norman: "Granting that they should vote on the selection of site, I am not in favor of allowing them to vote on other things."

Duggan: "The advisory committee can vote on all these propositions."

Cain was called on for his opinion.

"I did not come here tonight with the intention of voting, I wanted to leave it to the people. It looks as though most of us are in favor of the Gist tract, but nevertheless I would be better pleased if the people voted on the site."

Mrs. Smart and Mrs. Norman said it would be fairer to let the people decide.

Anderson: "It would be absurd to leave it to a vote. It would be contrary to law. If I had been on this board I would have objected to having an advisory committee, but we were selected and we have done our best. An election would be foolishness. The best campaigner would win out. I could pick out six men in this town who are good politicians, and they could organize and with money to hire automobiles and workers carry that election. I won't stand for submitting it to a campaign, if I can help it. This board has the power and right to decide it."

B. F. Beswick, Principal of Jefferson School, "Senator Anderson notwithstanding, the laws of the state are such that no state law is bigger than the people, and this matter can be left to the people. Every piece could be down to the lowest possible figure, and a vote taken."

Anderson said the people would vote according to prejudices, and the people have not demanded that it be submitted to them. There was no petition on the table. Moreover, he did not think the board should take the opinion of a school principal in matters of this kind.

It was sometime before Beswick got the floor, and then he said:

"I have every confidence in this school board, but I am a citizen though a school teacher, and I am just as free to express my opinion as though I were a lawyer."

Anderson and Jackson said that if submitted to the people every site should be offered.

Mosbaugh: "If you would vote to locate this site in the northern part of the city there would be no fight from those now asking for an election."

Mrs. Norman: "I see no reason why we cannot leave this to the people. Fullerton is doing it. Monrovia did it. Talking about politics, I think some politics have already been used."

Raitt: "Mr. Anderson says that the best campaigner would win out if left to the people. It seems to me that one member of the school board has been working at the campaign pretty hard, and if any other site had had a campaigner on the school board it might have won out."

Duggan: "I can take care of my own business." Anderson thought Raitt meant him, and Anderson rose to his feet. Duggan said: "He didn't mean you. He was attacking me."

Grubb: "I'd like to see Mr. Anderson get out and defend the Gist tract in a vote before the people." Anderson said he would not enter a campaign.

Wanted People's Vote
Mrs. Norman moved that the selection of site be submitted to the people and determined by a plurality vote. Mrs. Smart seconded.

Again there was objection that this could not be legally done. City Attorney Heathman stated that it could be done legally, and at the same time he wanted to have the people formally vote to change the high school site from Church street to the new tract. He said no vote changing from Church street to the present site was ever taken.

Duggan declared that the city attorney was mistaken, that no such a vote was needed, that all the school board did was to add to its present site.

Zimmerman and Heninger said the thing to do was for the board to locate the site somewhere, and then if the people do not like it they can change it. Raitt said it would take a two-thirds vote to make the change.

Dean: "I was at first against the selection of an advisory committee. I felt that we had been elected and we should take the entire responsibility. But we have the advisory committee and we should consider its advice."

Dean: "If the Stafford tract can be had at a price within our reach, it is my first choice. My second would be the Gist and my third the Adams & Mateer tract."

Mrs. Smart: "If we delay the selection, we may be able to get the Stafford tract at a price within our reach."

Duggan: "We are ready to go ahead tonight, and whatever the majority of the advisory committee and board vote, the school board will vote to ratify. That is the way it is to be done."

Mrs. Norman: "This school board never voted that it would ratify such a vote."

Duggan: "I think we did."

Mrs. Smart: "No, we did not."

Anderson: "That is the way it ought to be done."

Stockford Wheaton: "Since it has been brought up, I will say that I have talked to scores of people, and there isn't more than about one in a million in favor of the Gist tract."

Mrs. G. W. Wilcox: "We have land in the north and the south. All other things being equal, I would not favor the Gist tract on account of its objectionable environment, which probably cannot be moved."

Heninger said he thought no business could be reached while the crowd was in the room, and all but four or five withdrew.

Counting of Votes
Zimmerman: "I was told that my vote was to be counted, and I took my time on this matter, and I do not think it well for the board to repudiate the advisory committee now."

Dean: "I did not mean that. I merely meant that when the matter of a committee was first talked of, I objected."

Mrs. Norman: "When it comes to the advisory committee, if you mean that I should change my vote in accordance with the majority, I won't do it. I won't vote against a tract one minute, and for it right afterward."

Anderson: "Your school board should make it unanimous."

Cain: "I don't feel like disregarding the recommendation of the advisory committee. There has been a report that some of us have been fixed, and I thought it best to leave it to the people. I think well of the Gist tract, and I am ready to vote now."

Mrs. Norman's motion to submit the selection of site to the people, the board to abide by a plurality vote, was then put, and the advisory committee voted upon the question. The motion lost, 2 to 5, Mrs. Norman and Mrs. Smart voting aye.

Brief communications will be published under this head, provided they are signed by the author, or the author's name be sent to the editor as an evidence of good faith. Editor Register:—In last evening's issue of your paper appeared an opinion from our city attorney stating that the gas company could not legally make an additional charge of 15 per cent on bills not paid by the 15th of the month. From a common sense viewpoint this opinion is certainly correct.

Granting this opinion to be correct, can the city of Santa Ana legally add 10 cents to water bills not paid by the 20th of the month? This practice is being carried on by the water department of this city.

The city attorney should now explain why the city of Santa Ana can do this, when it is not legal for the gas company, the grocer or the butcher to do so.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

There Are Hundreds of Santa Ana People Similarly Situated

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Santa Ana residents? After you have read the following, quietly answer the question.

William Thursty, 417 E. Walnut St., Santa Ana, Calif., says: "Off and on for years I was bothered by my back and kidneys. To stoop or walk a little distance made the dull, heavy ache in my back more severe and my rest was badly broken. Further evidence of fault with my kidneys was shown by heavy sediment in the kidney secretions. Reading about Dean's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Dean's Drug Store and soon after I commenced their use, I noticed improvement. My back became strong and free from pain and the difficulty with the kidney secretions was corrected." (Statement given March 8, 1907.)

A Permanent Cure
On August 16, 1909 Mr. Thursty was interviewed and he said: "I have not changed my opinion of Dean's Kidney Pills since I recommended them over two years ago. The cure they effected has been permanent."

BLAME NARROWED DOWN TO THREE MEN

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Jan. 24.—Responsibility for the Illinois Central wreck at Kinmundy narrowed down yesterday to three men as a result of a searching inquiry conducted by Vice President W. L. Park of the Illinois Central. Henry J. Becker, flagman, and John Brainerd, conductor of express train No. 25, to which was attached the private car carrying former President J. T. WOODMEN BANQUET

Entertain Visitors With Oyster Supper After Initiation of New Members

The local camp of the Woodmen of the World last night had a most successful meeting in Moose Hall. A class of candidates were initiated. The La Fiesta team with fifty other members were present from Los Angeles and took charge of the degree work, assisted by Fullerton team and members. The work was done most efficiently and was thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the local camp and their guests. Among the latter were visitors from the camps at Orange, Norwalk and Anaheim and several from the Sovereign Jurisdiction, Past Head Counsel John H. Foley was among the prominent visitors and treated the Woodmen to a fine address which was extremely appreciated.

Following the initiation of the candidates and other business, the Woodmen adjourned to the banquet room where an oyster supper with all the "trimmings" was served. Toasts were given and responded to, Counsel Commander W. O. Codling presiding as toastmaster. The supper and the toasts concluded an evening that was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present.

The Rev. Sam Small, the famous Southern evangelist and lecturer, will be in Santa Ana this week and will deliver a lecture at the M. E. Church, S. at 7:30 o'clock, Friday night.

There are scores of people here who have never heard this original and forceful speaker, who will be glad of the opportunity to listen to his quaint sayings which are said to be full of wit and reason as well as expressed in no uncertain language.

Evangelist Small will talk on the subject of "Personal Liberty," a matter admitting of considerable latitude on the part of a keen speaker.

Y. M. P. C. Meeting

The Y. M. P. C. were entertained yesterday evening at the new and attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, 668 South Sycamore. During the business meeting it was decided that the class hold a cottage prayer meeting the first Tuesday of each month. It was reported that nine new members have joined the class, making a total of forty-five.

After the business meeting an excellent musical program was given, followed by the serving of light refreshments.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Allen, Geo. Heil, O. M. Newman, H. A. Wassum, A. H. Theal, R. H. McArthur, E. D. Johnson, L. Miles, F. C. Blauer, Mrs. Winbiger, Mrs. Barrows and Mr. Coffman. Miss Lela Heil was present and favored us with several piano selections.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

"Present Day Amusements" Was Live Topic Discussed By White Ribboners

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. C. Samson, 216 Orange avenue. The programs arranged for the W. C. T. U. meetings are always interesting but the meeting yesterday was one of the most enthusiastic held for some time. The subject was "Present Day Amusements."

Rev. Samson led the devotional service. Mrs. Clay Kellogg had charge of the program and opened with a few remarks on the subject. Mrs. J. H. Anderson gave out books on amusements to those who wished to take one. These books belong to the circulating library. Mrs. Kellogg had the audience assembled in three different rooms and a round-table discussion was held.

Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mrs. Franches and Mrs. George Heil each had charge of a round-table, using different phases of the subject, for general discussion. After the round-table discussion each leader gave a synopsis of leading subjects discussed. One of the most important brought out was that the present day moving picture shows of a poor and cheap class should be obliterated and pictures of an educational and higher class that have no tendency to crime be shown. Card playing and dancing were not considered proper amusements.

There was also a general discussion on high school plays, which brought out the thought that the practice necessary for these plays is too strenuous for the pupils at graduation time and a literary program would be as well enjoyed by the public as the plays.

The closing of shows of all kinds, pool and billiard rooms, and Sunday baseball was discussed, and with the ballot in the hands of the women it was thought that such a thing could be accomplished.

Public playgrounds was thought to be the best method for handling unruly children and also to give the children a place to go for amusement under the care of supervisors. Santa Ana should use every opportunity to secure public playgrounds.

Rev. Samson closed the program with a very enthusiastic talk on the subject and brought out many good thoughts and suggestions including many that have already been mentioned. The W. C. T. U. thanked Rev. Samson for his splendid address.

Mrs. Gale reported that one of the best donations she had ever sent to the Home for Women and Children of Southern California, was recently sent to that home. Fifteen dollars to be used for an elevator was also sent. The union received a communication from United States Senator John D. Works, stating that he would support the bill favoring the passage of an interstate commerce law making it unlawful to send or receive intoxicating liquors into a prohibition state. This resolution was sent to Washington about Jan. 10.

The women voted to place "American Motherhood" in the Rest Room for one year.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John McFadden, North Main street. Subject: "Willard Memorial."

Inter Se Club

Mrs. George S. Smith very delightfully entertained the Inter Se Club yesterday afternoon. Fancy work beguiled the time till five o'clock when a sumptuous chicken dinner was served.

Those present were Mesdames C. S. Crookshank, W. H. Bullard, Chas. Heil, Earl Glenn, C. W. Brakeman, Misses Mary and Gelia Coter, Miss Lida Crookshank, Miss Margaret Ore.

Art Study Club

Owing to the illness of a number of those on the program for last night's meeting of the Art Study Club, the evening was spent informally, the discussion being of art subjects in general.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach Coated Tongue of Constipated Bowels by Morning

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

NEW CARS ARE WINNERS

For Strength and Appearance
New Reo Compares Well
With $3000 Cars

Not often has more interest been exhibited in an auto by the local public than in the new Reo the Fifth, of which model a carload was received here yesterday by Henrickson. From its first appearance the car has been universally admired because of its handsome appearance, as well as because of its new features, not embodied in any other car on the market selling at anything like the same price. For this reason the advent of the new car has been looked for with keen interest by auto drivers, who have been enthusiastic in their approval of its original features.

Built on very graceful lines, and trimmed in nickel and black enamel, the car at once catches and holds the eye, whether the spectator be an expert or not. It by no means depends on good looks alone, however, for all through its construction soundness and strength are shown, and it is easy to see that the results of many years' experience in building autos have contributed to this, the latest and most successful design of a long successful designer. Considered from the standpoint of construction, beauty and in fact from the average run of cars, it is at $2000, because it has the qualities that characterize them, that it holds an important place and are cars of 1912 is assured.

CHINA PLANT MAY TAKE IT

Old Dreyfus Winery Building
Offered to a Los Angeles Concern

ANAHEIM, Jan. 24.—The old Dreyfus winery building, which was recently purchased by two local business men, John Wallis and John Cook, will from the present outlook soon be occupied by a Los Angeles manufacturing company. Representatives of the Los Angeles China Manufacturing Company have been here during the past few days looking over the site offered them by Wallis and Cook and it is now the belief that this concern will locate in this city.

The business of manufacturing china and pottery is as old as the days when primitive man first began to group together in tribes—and through all these centuries it has been a profitable business. The modern methods of manufacture in Europe and America, however, have placed the business in a class with the most paying concerns.

From 200 to 250 persons are employed, women as well as men working at the business. Nearly all of the labor is paid by piece work. It is the intention of the company to use oil for firing the kilns. Oil will be near at hand, as Orange county oil fields are only a short distance away.

News Briefs

The Anaheim Moose lodge has plans well under way for an indoor fair and society circus. Six nights of fun and amusement will be a special feature which will commence February 5. Other features will include a county fair and circus combined, high-class shows, and a beautiful bunch of booths. A queen will be chosen to reign during the week of amusement and is to be elected soon. A beautiful diamond ring will be presented to the queen.

Anaheim will be well represented at the approaching land show to be held in Los Angeles, and arrangements have already been made for the exhibit. This territory is able to make an excellent showing, particularly in the point of diversity and value of products.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The egg market took a quick turn. The buying at Monday's figures lagged and as a consequence yesterday's prices declined slightly on fresh stock. Canned stock was off 1/2 cent, selling at 32 1/2 cents, while case counts declined 1 1/2 cents, selling at 28 1/2 cents per dozen. There were no changes in storage eggs, and few sales. Prices in the North were reported firm. Receipts were 227 cases.

The expected advance in the butter market failed to materialize. Quoted prices were upheld. Receipts totaled 37,366 pounds. The bulk of the arrivals were creamery extras. The San Francisco market on this commodity was reported weak at 33 1/2 cents, and the Elgin market firm at 37 cents.

There was little call for cheese. Northern full cream, fresh and storage stock being the only grade that was well called for. Prices all through the list were firm to steady. Receipts were 572 pounds.

Potatoes were in good call. Several changes were noted. The top price on Highlands was advanced to $2.05, but the low level was held at $1.75. Oregon Early Wonders advanced to $2.75 a hundredweight. The demand was chiefly for Idaho, and Sacramento River stock. Arrivals were 1560 sacks. Onion receipts were 606 sacks. The call for onions was light.

There were no bean receipts reported in the market was firm. Very light sweet potato receipts helped to firm quotations on that product. The arrivals were 9 sacks.

There was a very good call for several dried fruits. Apricots moved particularly well. The market is already cleaning up on this fruit.

DEATH CURVE WAS NEAR SENDING OF AMATEUR FLYER

Cullan Fell 200 Feet But Got Control of Plane—Aviators Warned—7000 PresentLOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—With Death Curve at the Dominguez aviation field already claiming a sacrifice of three victims to the conquest of the air, the two score birdmen in attendance at the Los Angeles aviation meet are wondering today which of their number will be the next to pay the great forfeit.General Manager Ferris today issued a solemn warning to the aviators, saying that experts pronounce the air currents at this turn of the course more dangerous this year than ever before. An air sink, said to resemble closely the air holes in thin ice, is the cause of the trouble.Arch Hoxsey was the first victim of the air sink at Dominguez. YoungHartle, an amateur, was next. The present meet has contributed the life of Rutherford Page, 24, Yale graduate, and an aviator of great promise. Three other men have fallen at Death Curve during the present meet, each escaping apparently by a miracle.Amateur Fell 200 Feet
DOMINGUEZ FIELD, Jan. 24.—J. L.
Callan, an amateur, furnished an early sensation at the aviation meet by falling two hundred feet at the "death curve," righting his plane when less than thirty feet above the earth.
Fish was first in the air. St. Henry,
Stites and Hoff did fancy stunts.
Seven thousand gathered at the field attracted by the clear skies and absence of wind. The aviators declared the conditions improved. Parmelee and Beechey planned to try to raise Parmelee's height record for the meet, which is 1500 feet.State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas

MUST REGISTER AGAIN

Only Those Who Are on 1912 Lists Can Vote at the Fall Elections* For the benefit of those who will desire to vote at the fall elections it is stated that all who have not registered since January 1 of this year, must be enrolled on the new register. Old registrations of the last two years qualified for the various special elections, like that in the Fifth Supervisorial district and in Fullerton on the liquor question, and in Santa Ana on the school bonds; but the old book is now closed and only enrollments since the first of the year will be valid for the fall and presidential election.
It is earnestly urged that men and women will not neglect re-registering so that they may vote at the general election.

SCHMITZ ORDERED TO TRIAL—JURY IS BEING SELECTED

Judge Lawlor's Order to Begin Trial at Once Caused a SensationSAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Ex-Mayor Schmitz was unexpectedly ordered to immediate trial on long pending graft charges by Judge Lawlor.
Although the defense was taken by surprise, a jury is being selected.Schmitz, with Abe Ruef, was charged with attempting to bribe Supervisor Andrew M. Wilson, offering him $750. Twenty-eight indictments stand against Schmitz. Four have been combined in a joint charge under which he is being tried.The sensation came when Judge Lawlor notified Assistant District Attorney Berry and defense Attorney Frank Drew to appear in court. Immediately after his order for the trial to begin, Judge Lawlor denied Drew permission to file an affidavit, asserting prejudice and bias.

BRYAN LINES UP WITH GOV. WILSON

Declares Col. Harvey Praised Wilson Personally But Not His ViewsLINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 24.—William
J. Bryan takes the side of Governor Woodrow Wilson in his break with Col. Harvey and Henry Watterson, and justifies the action of the New Jersey governor in requesting that his name be withdrawn from the column of Harper's Weekly. In a letter sent from the East, made public here last night, Bryan says, among other things:
"But let us assume that Col. Harvey was doing all that he could for his choice, what was the situation?
"His conspicuous support was not only of no advantage, but it became actually a disadvantage. It did not bring Gov. Wilson the class for which Col. Harvey speaks, but alienated men just as honest as Col. Harvey's friends, who could not understand why Col. Harvey praised Gov.
Wilson personally without endorsing the things for which Gov. Wilson stands. It naturally aroused suspicion as to the sincerity of one ofthe other, and when Gov. Wilson was asked the question, he admitted that he regarded the support of Col.
Harvey as a liability, rather than a resource."

DIAZ SOLDIER AT HEAD

Gen. Gordillo Escudero Has Been Named Governor of Lower CaliforniaSAN DIEGO, Jan. 24.—All doubts as to who will be at the head of the Mexican civil and military government of Lower California was set at rest last night with the receipt of a message announcing that General Gordillo Escudero and his staff, en route from the City of Mexico, would arrive in San Diego this morning.
They will leave at once for Ensenada, the capital of the peninsula territory. Escudero fought for the Diaz administration against Madero in the revolution, but was sent to En-senada to relieve Celso Vega, remaining only a few weeks when he returned to Mexico City. Colonel Fidencio Gonzales has since been acting as governor.

FORESTRY SAVED STATE $378,000 LUMBER IN 1911

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—That "rightened organization" in the forestry service had saved the state 122,000,000 feet of lumber during the year 1911 was pointed out today at the annual meeting here of the forest supervisors stationed in California. The lumber saved, which represents the difference between loss by forest fires in 1910 and 1911, is valued at $378,000.The figures showed that there were 244 more fires in 1911 than in 1910.The meeting will continue through the week. Chief Forester Henry S.
Graves was expected to arrive last night and will appear before the supervisors today.

FLORIDA BEING RAPIDLY SHORN OF PINE TIMBER

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 24.—P. T.
Day of Cleveland, Ohio, the largest naval stores operator in the west, predicted yesterday that if the present tinued, that state will be totally denuded of pines in a few years. He
